SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong State University men's basketball graduate student George Brown has been named to the 2016-17 Peach Belt Conference's All-Academic Men's Basketball Team, announced today.

The team is part of a season-long program recognizing the outstanding accomplishments of PBC student-athletes in the classroom as well as on the field. To be eligible for the All-Academic team, a student-athlete must 1) participate in at least half of his/her team's events and be either a starter or significant contributor; 2) achieved a 3.30 cumulative grade point average (on a 4.0 scale) and 3) completed at least one full academic year at his or her current institution and has reached sophomore athletic eligibility. The Peach Belt Conference Sports Information Directors oversee the program.

Brown carries a perfect 4.0 GPA in the Professional Communication & Leadership graduate program at Armstrong State. The Kingsland, Ga., native is in his fourth season with the Pirates and has played in 19 games, making four starts - all in Armstrong State's last four games. He averages 1.6 points and 1.9 assists per game. He is also a three-time PBC Presidential Honor Roll honoree in his career and currently serves as the president of Armstrong State's Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC).

This is his first All-Academic honor from the Peach Belt for Brown and he is the first PBC All-Academic honoree for Armstrong State men's basketball since Parker Hayden was named to the 2008-09 team.
